

COLLABORATIVE LEARNING

COLLABORATIVE LEARNING.

- Collaborative learning means-
- You learn when you help each other and you can use and suggest ideas which will help you all learn better.
- You work on things together.
- Think of T.E.A.M.
- Together, Everyone Achieves More.
- Tom is the last bit too much leading expectations.

COLLABORATIVE LEARNING CAN BE USEFUL IN ALL SUBJECTS.

- Maths
 - English
 - P.E
 - PHSCE.
 - Etc.
- Tom. I will probably turn this page into a Wordle for better visual impact.

ASSESSMENT QUESTIONS

- Depends on how teacher would want to do this- either with or without previous slide.
- Built in time in session to do this.

Set up like this.

- Strongly Disagree - No that's not me. I AM NEVER LIKE THIS
- Disagree - That's me, ONLY SOMETIMES
- Neutral - I'm not sure, I JUST DON'T KNOW.
- Agree - That is me, A LOT OF THE TIME.
- Strongly Agree - Yes- That's me, ALL THE TIME.

When I work in a group, I think I am good at helping us all learn together.

- When I work in a group, I feel I can cooperate well and sometimes I can be a leader or the team.
- I am good at listening to others in the group and I can learn from what we talk about.
- When working as a group, I feel what I say matters to the others and they respect and use what I say.
- Learning like this helps me to express my views and ideas and add my knowledge to the group.
- When working Collaboratively like this. I like to tell people what I have learnt and what I now know..

- I care about my group and I want them to learn and enjoy our group work.
- Working in groups helps us to ask good questions and we are able to answer each others questions.
- Working like this, helps us all to say what we feel and explain our thoughts in a friendly way.
- Collaborative working makes us really think about what we say and gives each person a chance to explain what they think.
- Collaborative working helps each person to add to what they know and think about what they have learnt in the lesson.
- After working in a group Collaboratively, I really think my opinions mattered and my views and ideas were listened to.
